

Miller-Phillips Exchange Vows at Parents' Home

Diane Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken M. Miller, was married to William W. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunter, 2367 W. 250th st., Lomita at the home of her parents, 26347 Senator ave., Harbor City. Rev. J. D. Hardin officiated at the double ring ceremony which took place Saturday, January 25 at 2 p.m.

A white lace street length gown was chosen by the bride. She carried a white carnation bouquet.

Maid of honor was Marie Capiter of Torrance. Best man was Earl R. Wilson of Westminster.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

The newly-weds spent a weekend at Big Bear, after which they returned to their new residence at 1842 Torrance blvd.

Both the bride and groom were graduated from Narbonne High and attended Harbor Junior college. The bride is employed in Torrance, and the groom at Contract Engineering company.

ODD FELLOWS HEART DRIVE

Plans are being formulated for the annual Heart Fund Drive to be held on Sunday, February 23, under the sponsorship of the Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs of the State of California.

Mrs. Freida Shaffer will be the Torrance community chairman and she will be assisted by Mrs. Olive Veatch as co-chairman. They have divided the city and surrounding areas into smaller areas and have appointed George Jennings as head of the Odd Fellow division. He will be assisted by other members of the order. The Rebekahs having smaller areas are: Shirley Leetz, Angelino Disario, Edith Bogan, Bonnie Roberts and Bolva Brase.

Mr. and Mrs. Wat Withrow, have accepted a large portion of the Southwest Torrance area.

Any church or service club that would like to have a part in this work may get the necessary information from any of the workers.

The central gathering place for the meeting on February 23 will be the YWCA at the corner of Plaza Del Amo and Carson streets.

HEART FUND: Trudy Bolin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bolin, 2415 Border ave., is an ardent worker for the Heart Fund. Trudy survived a heart ailment because of the research carried on by funds derived from the annual drive. She is admiring the awards of merit given the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs for their work done during the year held by Mrs. Olive Veatch, left, area chairman last year, and Edna Ferrin, right, noble Grand of the lodge.

Women Voters

Mrs. Melzar Jones, president of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates, announced to members and friends of the league that State League Day is Tuesday, February 11.

A Southern California meeting will be held at the Alexandria hotel at Fifth and Spring streets in Los Angeles from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Next week, Northern California leagues will hold a similar meeting in San Francisco. This provides an opportunity to exchange information with other league members doing similar work, and to expand knowledge of league work into larger areas.

"The Constitution at Work: Its Effect on the Executive, the Legislative, and the Voter," will be the subject of a panel discussion for the morning program at 10 a.m.

At 1:30 p.m. the state legis-

Philippine Scouts Send Letter to Senior Scouts

Recently, Troop 1299, Senior Girl Scouts, received a letter from a similar Girl Scout Troop in the Philippine Islands. The Torrance girls have been corresponding and exchanging gifts with the girls in the Philippines for over seven years.

The letter, written in English, thanked the girls for sending some American magazines, National Geographic, Seventeen and American Girl, to their troop in the Philippines. The Philippine girls were most excited about the young fashion magazine, Seventeen. The letter also told of a Philippine holiday, All Saints' Day, and a local election. The correspondence gives the American girls an excellent insight into the lives of the people of the Philippine Islands.

The Torrance troop is sponsored by the Jaycettes and is composed of girls from 16 to 18 years of age. Most of the girls have been in Girl Scout work since Brownies. There are 20 girls in this troop.

The girls are planning a weekend trip to the mountains for their annual Mountaineer snow trip. They will spend some of the time at Snow Valley, and then will stay at Camp Seelye Crestline. This is attended by all the Mountaineer troops from the Los Angeles council.

Mrs. Fred Hansen and Mrs. A. Krauszer are the troop leaders.

College Women Plan Meeting

A meeting of the South Bay and Harbor districts of the Occidental College Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Brown of Redondo Beach on Monday, January 27, to plan and make the table decorations for the February 7 meeting to be held at the college. This is the annual night meeting and Mrs. Roland Smith, president, invites all the parents and friends of Occidental to attend, particularly the fathers who have very little opportunity to visit the college.

The theme of the decorations is sports. The centerpieces of the tables will be the various sports in which Occidental College participates.

Besides the local women attending, Mrs. R. Roland Smith, club president, from Pasadena; and Mrs. L. M. Venegoni, tea hostess, from Arcadia, were present to help with the planning.

Others present were Mesdames Kenneth Deets, who assisted Mrs. Brown, W. Blaine Allman, Robert Sharp, from Palos Verdes; Richard Mason and Marvin Labory from Gardena; R. J. Hester and James McMillen from Torrance; J. Devaney and Charles Post from Hermosa Beach; Richard Shoemaker from Manhattan Beach and George Badstuber from Hawthorne.

WOMEN STUDY COUNTY NEEDS

The first of a series of three unit meetings on "Know Your County" will be held by the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates next week. Torrance women who are interested in this study are invited to attend any one of the meetings.

Times and places are as follows: Monday, February 10, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Ralph Wuerker, 4036 Via Pima, Palos Verdes Estates; Tuesday, February 11, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Allen Curtis, 206 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera; Wednesday, February 12, at the home of Mrs. Richard Blakeley, 2608 Via Ramon, Palos Verdes Estates.

Chairman of the committee currently studying the services and functions of Los Angeles county is Mrs. B. R. Claire. She will be assisted at the meetings by Mmes. D. J. MacDonald, R. A. Ritzmann, and Thomas Stout. A general description of Los Angeles county will be given, plus a review of administration and financing procedures.
